

Concordance – the missing link in renal medicine

- We welcome you to listen to members of our eminent faculty and challenge their opinions and current practices
- The symposium will combine presentations, panel debates and Q&A sessions
- Continuing Personal/Professional Development (CPD) and Royal College of Nursing (RCN) accreditations have been applied for

Refreshments will be served from 12:00

The meeting will be chaired by:

Professor John Cunningham DM FRCP

Consultant in Nephrology, Royal Free & University College Medical School, London

AGENDA ITEMS AND SPEAKERS

Professor Rob Horne BSc MSc PhD MRPharmS

Professor of Behavioural Medicine and Director, Centre for Behavioural Medicine, University of London

Concordance in renal medicine

Dr Steve Riley MD MRCP

Senior Lecturer, Institute of Nephrology, University Hospital Wales, Cardiff

Rob Bradley MSc BPharm

Principal Pharmacist (Renal), University Hospital Wales, Cardiff

Patient views from differing perspectives (presented together)

Louise Wells BSc

Senior Renal Dietician, York Hospitals NHS Trust

Concordance: a renal dietician's perspective

Dr Alastair Hutchison FRCP MD

Consultant in Nephrology, Manchester Royal Infirmary

New advances in phosphate binders

